

Conference Overview and Fact Sheet

OVERVIEW:

The Women In Ministry (WIM) Conference, Inc. is a 501c3 nonprofit organization whose overall mission is to develop, coach, and mentor women in ministry for the 21st Century. The conveners are passionate about the impact mentoring has on the lives of individuals, the communities they serve and the organizations they transform. Since our inception in 2005, the WIM Conference, Inc. has served more than 2,000 women who impact, inspire and transform the lives of so many across the nation.

This conference is exclusively dedicated to the advancement of professional women in ministry. The conference fosters dialogue and provides an opportunity for attendees to have access to current and relevant information in the field of ministry. The conference includes plenary and breakout sessions facilitated by a diverse range of leading ministers and scholars.

VISION:

To develop a movement of women in ministry; to celebrate our cultural inheritance; to preserve, process, and pass on this unique legacy.

OBJECTIVES:

- Explore the biblical, theological, professional foundations and personal realities of women in ministry.
- Explore the uniqueness of women in ministry: gifts, styles, challenges, and opportunities.
- Equip and empower women to engage in ministry with excellence and integrity by leading, mentoring and coaching them.
- Enable women to deal with the realities of ministry and life - marriage, single life/dating, healing, etc. by establishing solution oriented processes.
- Energize women who have grown weary or disillusioned in ministry.
- Enable the holistic development of the personhood of women in ministry.
- Enlarge our view beyond denominational stereotypes and myopic church cultures to engage in cross cultural conversations and disciplines.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Women with a felt need for instruction, impartation and healthy interaction who are Seminary trained women and/or ordained and licensed with two years of experience and/or women who are seriously exploring or engaged in ministry with an endorsement from a Pastor or denominational leader.
